Reading Group during the Epiphany Season: Midwinter with Middlemarch

George Eliot's masterwork, Middlemarch, was originally published in eight installments, released one by one over eight months, in 1871-72. It is now divided into eight 'books.' We will meet on Tuesday evenings for eight weeks to reflect upon the novel, one book at a time, beginning with the Prelude and Book I on January 7, 2020.

When: Tuesdays at 7pm, continuing until February 25th.

First time as well as seasoned 're-readers' welcome!

If you are interested or have questions please speak with St George's parishioner Marilyn Orr, or contact her at marilynorr41@gmail.com.

Marilyn is Professor Emeritus of English at Laurentian University. Her most recent book is George Eliot's Religious Imagination: A Theopoetics of Evolution, published by Northwestern University Press in 2018.

QEII Health Sciences Centre is recruiting volunteers

The QEII Health Sciences Centre is recruiting volunteers for a variety of programs supporting patients, Veterans and the public in finding their way at the VG and Halifax Infirmary sites, recreation activities, meal assistance and others. There are a variety of days and times available. To learn more, please contact Volunteer Services at 902-473-2457 or go to www.nshealth.ca/volunteer.

Fellowship needs some help

I'm still looking for some more volunteers for the Sunday Fellowship Teams. We seem to be a hungry crowd after the morning service, especially the children! The teams are set up to be on duty every six weeks.

Even if you are not able to commit to serving or coming in early to set up perhaps you could provide extra food for one of the teams, which would be greatly appreciated. Please let me know if you feel this is something you could do. Thank you. Mary Hills(maryhills41@gmail.com)

Rekeying of the Round Church and Parish Hall

Please note that the Round Church and the Parish Hall will be rekeyed in the next few weeks, as part of our Safer Church requirements. Keyholders will be contacted by the Parish Office with instructions on how they can obtain new keys. If you are a key holder and have not yet submitted your Covenant of Care and Police Record Check to the Parish Office, please do so as soon as possible. If you have questions, please speak with Jordan Gracie in the office or with the Rector.

Memories of the Fire and the Restoration of the Round Church

As part of last weekend's commemoration of the 25th anniversary of Archbishop Peters' decision granting permission to restore the Round Church after the fire in 1994, a collection of memories from parishioners and friends of the parish about the fire and the restoration has been printed. Copies are available at the back of the church. We are still collecting memories until the end of January. If you would like to make a contribution, please speak with the Rector, Jan Connors, or Susan Harris.

YouthNet Update from Sarah Griffin, Executive Director

This year at YouthNet we are excited to continue one-on-one music lessons every Tuesday, as well as one-on-one tutoring at King's College every Monday. We are currently building our volunteer base for the rest of the week. On Wednesdays most youth go to Centennial pool, while a few youth head next door to A Tiny Lab daycare where they are big buddies to children at Tiny Lab. Thursdays we are bringing in a dance instructor, as well as cultivating a partnership with Wonder'neath art studio. Fridays we head to the Oval to work with the Oval speed skating program.

Sarah and I are also happy to have two new staff working with the teen program, Nyon Butros and Hannah Mills. Teen program began this week, and Hannah and Nyon are already developing a good rapport with the teens. Lastly, three more students started coming to YouthNet's after school program this semester, Bianca, Brielle, and JJ. They are great kids, and add a lot of life to the program.
