10 am Holy Communion (said)

The Introit Psalm 102:1-11 p. 458

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, / and let my crying come unto thee.

Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble: /
incline thine ear unto me; O hear me when I call, and that right soon.

For my days consume away like smoke, /
and my bones are burnt up as it were a fire-brand.

My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass; /
for I forget to eat my bread.

For the voice of my groaning, / my bones cleave to my flesh.

I am become like a pelican in the wilderness, /
and like an owl that is in the desert.

I watch, and am even as it were a sparrow, /
that sitteth alone upon the house-top.

Mine enemies revile me all the day long; / and they that are mad against me use my name as a curse.

For I have eaten ashes as it were bread, /
and mingled my drink with weeping;

And that because of thine indignation and wrath; /
for thou hast taken me up and cast me down.

My days are gone like a shadow; / and I am withered like grass.

The Gloria Patri is omitted during Passiontide

Please kneel

The Gradual Psalm 55:12-15 p. 398
For it is not an open enemy, that hath done me this dishonour; /
for then I could have borne it;
Neither was it mine adversary, that did magnify himself against me; /
for then I would have hid myself from him.
But it was even thou, my companion, /
my guide, and mine own familiar friend.
We took sweet counsel together, / and walked in the house of God as friends.
