The Introit Psalm 84

tone VI

O HOW LOVE-ly are thy dwell-ings, / --- thou Lord~ of hosts!

My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord:/
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the liv~ing God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: / even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and~ my God.

Blessèd are they that dwell in thy house; /
they will be al~way prais~ing thee.

Blessèd are the men whose strength is in thee, /
in whose heart are the pil~grim ways;

Who going through the Vale of Misery use it for a well; /
Yea, the early rain covereth it with~ bless-ings.

They go from strength to strength, / and unto the God of gods appeareth every one of them in~ Sion.

O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer: / hearken, O God of~ Ja-cob.

Behold, O God, our shield, / and look upon the face of thine a~noin-ted.

For one day in thy courts / is better than a~ thou-sand.

I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, / than to dwell in the tents of un~god-li^ness.

For the Lord God is a light and defence; the Lord will give grace and glo-ry; / and no good thing shall he withhold from them that lead a~ god-ly^life.

O Lord God of hosts, / blessèd is the man that putteth his trust~ in thee.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, / and to the~ Ho-ly^Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, / world with-out end~. A-men.

Notices & Announcements
September 5, 2021

Worship during the Pandemic

The ongoing COVID-19 pandemic means that we must take extra precautions to help prevent the further spread of the virus. While in the church, please...

- wear a mask;
- clean your hands upon arriving;
- check in with the greeter to record your name;
- do not sit in the pews marked off with a ribbon;
- refrain from shaking hands and try to cough or sneeze into your elbow.

At the time of the Holy Communion (during the 10:30 a.m. service only), please remain seated until the greeter has signaled that it is time for you to go. Those sitting around the outside aisles and the upstairs Gallery will go first, followed by those sitting around the centre aisle.

There are two stations for receiving the Sacrament, one on each side of the Communion rail. We ask that only one person or household go to each station at a time.

Upon leaving the Communion rail, follow the arrows back down the central aisle of the chancel.

At the end of the service, please exit the church using the door to the parking lot (side door to your right), or the Brunswick Street doors, leaving your prayer books in the box provided at the door. If physically possible, please consider using the Brunswick Street door, especially if you are seated near the back of the church.

At all times, we must observe physical distancing in the church, keeping six feet or two metres from those outside of your family or household. It is tempting to chat with friends and newcomers at the back of the church at the end of the service, but it is best for people to gather for such conversations outdoors where distancing is easier.

If you have travelled or have been in direct contact with someone who has travelled outside of Nova Scotia within the last fourteen days or are feeling unwell and have symptoms of COVID-19, please do not come to church. Let the Rector know if you are unwell so we can offer our care and our prayers for you.

Weekday Daily Offices in the Little Dutch Church

Over the past few months many of the pandemic gathering restrictions have lifted but many people are still not comfortable gathering in larger groups, including attending church services. If you are feeling this way, consider attending Morning or Evening Prayer which is said in the Little Dutch Church at 9 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. each weekday. These are small services with one or two other people, and lasts about 25 minutes. Come and pray for your loved ones, the neighbourhood, and the world.

Scripture Readings for the Week

The Scripture readings below can be read on their own, or with the daily offices of Morning and Evening Prayer (see pp. 1-24 in the Book of Common Prayer), or the shortened Family Prayers in the back of the Book of Common Prayer (see pages 728-736).

YouthNet Update

YouthNet's summer programs have concluded and we are busy planning our after school programs which will begin the week of September 20th. Amongst our many activities, we hope to resume tutoring for our youth with students from King's College and are hoping to launch new music programming for our youth in partnership with the Maritime Conservatory. Thank you to all who support our programs with time, talent, treasure, and prayers.

New YouthNet Director

Last week we welcomed Apolonia Perri as director of St George's YouthNet. Over the past week she has worked closely with our outgoing director, Sarah Griffin, our program coordinator, Sarah Sharp, and Father Hatt as she transitioned into the role. She was raised in the city of Toronto and has lived in Halifax for five years. Her father and step mother are Italian and her mother is from Quebec. In Halifax, she studied at King's and Dalhousie, pursuing a bachelor's education in the history of philosophy with a focus in Western Art History. At King's she felt welcomed by the Chapel community, and she joined their leadership as a student warden under the ministry of Fr. Ranall Ingalls. She has been a member of the congregation at St. George's for three years, and a friend of many sextons and Trinity House residents. Since then she also began volunteering at YouthNet and connecting with the children, while also gaining a sense of the overall vision for the programming. Please pray for her as she undertakes the responsibility of being entrusted with the children, staff, and programming of our beloved St. George's YouthNet.

New YouthNet Mural!

YouthNet has a new mural on the Maitland Street fence. Go take a look! You can read more about the story behind the mural in the enclosed bulletin insert. A huge thank you to St George's parishioners Ian Porter and Allan Snook who worked long, hot days this past July to install the new fence and prepare it for painting.

YouthNet is hiring!

YouthNet Lunch Program Coordinator -- position available
YouthNet is looking for a coordinator for our lunch program at Joseph Howe Elementary, beginning this September. The coordinator arranges for lunches through local parishioners and community organisations, and delivers them to Joseph Howe School every school day, working closely with the children and school staff. The coordinator should be available from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. each school day. This is a paid position, $15/hour for 15 hours per week. More information is available at www.stgeorgesyouthnet.ca or speak with Fr Hatt.

Parish Music Programming for Toddlers, Children and Young People

A meeting will be held on Sunday, September 26th following the 10:30 a.m. Choral Holy Communion to talk about opportunities for music programming for children and young people in the parish. This includes the possibility of a new cherub choir for toddlers and their parents, the junior choir, and possibly a youth choir for older adolescents. Other ideas might also emerge from our conversation. Parents, guardians, and young people are strongly encouraged to attend. Bring your ideas!

Thank you to Patricia Martinson who retires today from her ministry as greeter at our choral services on Sundays and Feast Days. We thank her for many years of faithful service in this role!

Parish Administrator on Vacation

Our Parish Administrator, Jordan Gracie, is on vacation now until Monday, September 20th. We thank Andrea Lee who will be in the office a few hours each week while he is away to respond to phone calls, emails, mail, and produce the Sunday bulletin. Feel free to leave a message for Andrea or contact the Rector if you need assistance from the parish office during this time.
