Welcome!

Who are we? In response to the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Parish of Saint George offers a unique combination of traditional Anglican worship and a commitment to Inner-City Ministry. Open to the community that surrounds it, Saint George's dares to be shaped by the Inner City, yet seeks to transform our neighbourhood by preaching, in Word and action, the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Come join us in worship, fellowship and outreach ministry.

Finance Update from the Treasurer

For August 2022

The parish ran modest surpluses in June ($3000), July ($1000) and August ($6500), reducing the deficit from $21 000 at the end of May to $11 500 at the end of August. The summer period is often a time of reduced giving and growing deficit historically. Given the longevity of the parish, I guess I shouldn't be surprised, but I am. Am grateful for the faithful giving of time, talent and treasure by you all to the parish and its works.

(Note: figures are rounded to the nearest $100. If you would like the specifics, reach out to me).

Michaelmas – September 28

The Feast of Saint Michael and All Angels will be celebrated with Choral Holy Communion on the eve, Wednesday, September 28th at 7 p.m. in the Round Church. The name “Michael” means “who is like unto God”. In the Old Testament Michael is the great prince, the protector of the children of Israel (Daniel 12:1). In the New Testament (Revelation 12:7) he is the heavenly leader in the fight against all enemies of God. In celebrating this feast day we remember the angels and principalities who fight and against all manner of spiritual evil and wickedness on our behalf. The rector will preach.

Bible Study of the Book of Psalms:

Tuesdays at 7pm, October and November

The Psalms are, of course, an integral and vital part of our liturgy, and many of us feel a deeply personal connection to individual psalms. At the same time, the Psalms as a whole and individually will repay more intentional study and shared reflection. The Psalms are traditionally divided into five Books; we will use this grouping, but subdivide Book Five into two groups. Each week a different parishioner will lead the discussion, with each taking their own approach and focusing on two or three of the Psalms in that group for further discussion and reflection. Our shared aim will be to deepen our spiritual understanding.

October 4 BOOK ONE: Psalms 1-41, led by Dr Marilyn Orr

October 11 BOOK TWO: Psalms 42-72, led by Fr Nicholas Hatt

October 25 BOOK THREE: Psalms 73-89, led by TBA

November 8 BOOK FOUR: Psalms 90-106, led by TBA

November 22 BOOK FIVE, Part One: Psalms 107-119, led by TBA

November 29 BOOK FIVE, Part Two: Psalms 120-150 led by Coryn Stehouwer

Update on Nave Windows Restoration

Earlier this summer, parts of the southside lower nave windows in the Round Church were removed to the workshop of Parsons Lumber for repairs (this heritage company rebuilt the sanctuary windows 6 years ago). You may well have noticed some missing sashes and storm windows; these are presently being worked on. Next week two window boxes with rotten sills will also be removed. Until these can be replaced, in approximately a month's time, the window holes will be covered in plywood. When all the component parts are ready for replacement, the windows will be reinstalled, with the addition of pulleys, so that the heavy sashes are easily openable in order to provide extra ventilation during hot weather.

This round of upkeep on the windows is the first since restoration after the fire. In 2021 we started the current round of window repairs with work on the north side lower nave windows. The plan in 2023 is to proceed with necessary repairs and upkeep on the upper Southside nave windows; the north side upper windows do not require repairs at this time, only the installation of pulleys to make the presently openable window easier to operate.

Volunteers needed: Saint George's Communication Working Group

We are assembling a small working group to assist with parish communications and publicity. We are looking for individuals who are strong communicators and interested in helping to develop and disseminate content about Saint George's and our parishioners through newsletters, bulletins, the web, and social media. If you are interested in writing, design/layout or social media please get in touch with office@roundchurch.ca. The group will meet monthly from October through June and work on assigned tasks remotely.

Prayers for James Smith First Nation and the Diocese of Saskatchewan

We continue to offer prayers at the daily offices of Morning and Evening Prayer with special intentions for those who have died, those who were injured, and all whose lives have been irrevocably changed by the recent violence in James Smith First Nation and the surrounding communities. We pray also for all those involved in the violence, that they might be given penitent hearts and seek repentance. These communities are located within the Diocese of Saskatchewan where our parish has some friends, including Bishop Michael Hawkins and the Rev'ds Wilfred and Theresa Sanderson who serve in James Smith. They visited Halifax and King's College only a few years ago and made some connections with some parishioners at St George's. Please uphold all of them in your prayers in the coming days and weeks as they try to heal from this violence.

Volunteers Needed! YouthNet Lunches

With yet another incredible summer behind us, YouthNet is now gearing up to begin our school year programming. Our Lunch Program -- made possible by the support of community members and local businesses -- is set to resume on Tuesday, September 20th.

We are currently looking for volunteers to assist us in providing 36 lunches to the youth of Joseph Howe Elementary each day. Your help can include preparing lunches (at home, or in the YouthNet kitchen), providing supplies or financial assistance, or assisting with occasional transportation (dropping off lunches or trips to the store). Volunteers typically commit to one 36-portion meal a month, although we can be flexible with frequency and schedules. Charitable tax receipts will be provided for the cost of food upon request. Lunches can be delivered hot or frozen to YouthNet, located at 2221 Maitland Street.

To get involved, please reach out to Jon at lunch@stgeorgesyouthnet.ca or via phone at 514-755-4802.

Halifax Thinks: The Early Modern World

Do you love to read, think, and discuss? Would you like to learn about philosophy, literature, and art in a university-level course that works with your busy schedule?

This year the Halifax Humanities Society is excited to offer Halifax Thinks: The Early Modern World, a course that will confront the rise of modern thought in authors like Descartes, Rousseau, Hobbes, Kant, Jane Austen and many more. Students will receive 12 recorded lectures written and delivered by university professors which they can listen to at their convenience and will meet twice a month in an in-person tutorial where they discuss the work with a university professor and their fellow classmates.

This course is offered by donation. All proceeds go to support Halifax Humanities programs that offer non-credit education in the Humanities to adults living on low incomes, completely free of charge.

The session begins October 23. Email halifaxhumanities@gmail.com to register!
